

STONEFLY

VINEYARDS

Founded on a passion for fly fishing and fine wine, StoneFly crafts extraordinary wines from the Napa and Sonoma Valleys.

StoneFly Vineyards produces small lots of extraordinary Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc. With vineyards in Oakville, Mt. Veeder, Atlas Peak, Mt. George, Russian River and the Alexander Valley appellations, the rich soil cultivates ideal grapes for true varietal balance and character.

Robert Parker called StoneFly's ruby-red, delicate, Loire Valley Cabernet Franc "one of the most French-like Cabernet Francs I have tasted from California."

Vineyards

Like the fly fisher reading the water before each cast, we have committed our passion to cultivating a thoughtful understanding of the landscape.

Our vineyards situated in the Napa Valley Watershed are from growing districts of Oakville, Atlas Peak and Mt. Veeder. The unique climate, terrain, and soil composition of each of these districts is expressed in fruit of remarkable complexity from each vineyard. Using a mindful approach to land stewardship, StoneFly Vineyards carefully selects only the choicest lots for each wine.

Winemaking

Winemakers, Marco DiGiulio and Zach Long guide the process with an uncompromising commitment to excellence and an absolute passion for wine. With deep roots in Napa Valley and high acclaim for their efforts, they share a down-to-earth style, by placing focus on the unique flavors and nuances of each vintage.

Cuisine

By creating wines of balance and elegance, our wines marry the flavors of your favorite foods and bring harmony to the dining experience. Great wines are meant to be enjoyed with great food and are best when shared with fond recollections from your days spend out on the water.

The character of each vineyard comes to life with each wine poured and savored.
